be replaced by the following:

- sperticularly sensitive position shall be re-investigated at intervals not to exceed five years. Midividuals indicated in peragraph (3.c need not be subjected to re-investigation.
 - c.b. Other individuals cleared for COMIST and retaining that status over a long period of time, not considered to occupy a particularly sensitive position, shall be subjected to such periodic re-investigations as are considered necessary by the USCIB member concerned.
 - Re-investigation shall be conducted so as to reasonably assure insuber departments and agencies that an individual continues to used the requirements for access to COMINT. Re-investigation should include, a national agency check, a review of an up-to-date personal history statement or other documentation, a check of personal, business, and neighborhood associates, police and aredit check and where feasible a personal interview conducted by security or counterintelligence personnel.
- one where the incumbent has the need-to-know; and has access to particularly suphisticated or wide variety of anyptanalytic techniques, or who has a broad knowledge of U.S. COMINT resources and successes, or who may for other reasons be a more likely target of foreign intelligence services."

NSA & OSD Declassification/Release Instructions on File